Rev. Mr. Finley

My dear Sir:

Your communication needs no apology. Your letter exhibits the feelings which Christ and his Apostles exercised towards the suffering and those in prison. Whatever can be done in the case of the individual referred to shall be done cheerfully.

I start for the East on a two months' visit this very evening. Upon the receipt of this, will you please write me the particulars about Robert Sanders' case - not only his statement but that of the State also.

You will also find a brother of mine in Mr. Gwynne's Store in Columbus. He is a young gentleman of delicate & humane feelings. If you speak to him privately, he can do much.

Please write me more freely, and address Richmond, North Canaan, Litchfield Co., Connecticut.

Tell Robert that I shall shortly visit Philadelphia & ask him what he wishes to have me say to his mother.

With sentiments of highest esteem and kindest regards I am Yours in the religion of the prisoner's friend, Richmond
